Essay about my family

I have a very happy family. 1 father, 1 mother and 2 younger sisters. Even though it is simple, our time together is always full of warmth and happiness.

My Mother

My mother's name is Ika. Yes, it's true that I really love my mother, my mother took care of me since I was little with my father, she took care of me tirelessly. My mother comes from Karanganyar, Central Java. My mother was born in 1983 in hospital. My mother is a teacher at an elementary school located near my house. She is very enthusiastic in conveying her knowledge to her students. My mother teaches at school from 7 am to 12 am. My mother is also a very good housewife. She always prepares everything when my family and I want to do activities in the morning. For example, preparing clothes for my family, preparing the necessary equipment, cooking and preparing breakfast for us to eat before we move in the morning. My mother I'm also good at cooking food and my family really likes the dishes my mother makes. My mother really likes coffee. There isn't a day without coffee. Usually my mother drinks coffee in the morning after breakfast. One of the reasons my mother likes coffee is so she doesn't get sleepy when teaching. I love my mother.

My Father

My father's name is Usman. Yep, I also really love my father. My father comes from Boyolali, Central Java but has parents who come from Kroya. My father was born in 1984 in hospital. My father is a strong and very good man in my family. He also always helps my mother and my family in completing housework. My father also has a strict nature, especially when his children make very big mistakes, but my father is also never stingy when it comes to distributing money to my family. Thank God, I am very grateful that I still have a father who is always responsible for supporting my family. I am very proud of my father. I love my father.

My Sister

I have 2 younger sisters. Each is 2 years different and 6 years from me. My first sister's name is Rifa, she is 16 years old. She goes to Al Muhajirin High School near my house. Rifa has a good nature in our family, she likes to help clean the house every day. Rifa's favorite food is ketoprak, she won't eat unless there is ketoprak hehe. My second sister's name is Aisyah. She is 12 years old. Now she is studying at the Islamic Development Network Boarding School in Bogor. Aisyah also has a good and polite nature in my family. She always helps mom cook during school holidays. Aisyah's hobbies are swimming and drawing sketches. Food Aisyah's favorite is chicken katsu. I love my two younger sisters

Conclusion

For me, my family is the most important source of strength. They are the people who have always been by my side, providing unconditional support and love. My family taught me valuable life values and motivated me to become a better person. I am very grateful to have a family who is loving and caring, and always supports me in every step of my life journey. I love my family.
